

Call to Worship

Chip Goldsberry

Leader: The good news of the gospel is:

People: manna in the desert, water turned into wine, love after loss, forgiveness after pain.

Leader: The good news of the gospel is:

People: release for the captive, hope for the hopeless, mourning turned to dancing, and strangers turned to friends.

Leader: So come on in. There's no time to waste! This surprising good news is here for you.

People: Let us worship this good-news God.Hymn "Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee" 611Call to Confession*Prayer of Confession (Unison):

Loving God, somewhere along the way we picked up the message that in order to be faithful, we have to be serious. We have to pray on our knees without ceasing. We have to be somber in worship and quiet in our studies. We have to check our wiggles and our questions at the door. But then you say the kingdom of God is like a mustard seed—unruly and untamed. You turn water into wine—surprising and extravagant. And all of a sudden, we wonder: Can we be like that mustard seed? Can we be faithful and unruly? Can we be playful and curious? Can we be messy and still be yours? We know the answer already. The Spirit whispers: of course, of course, of course. Forgive our doubt. Pull us closer into your embrace. With faith like a mustard seed, we pray. Amen.

Declaration of Forgiveness

Leader: God's grace is wild and unruly. God's mercy is abundant and surprising. God's love is expansive and unending. So if you ask, "Holy One, am I forgiven?" the answer is and always will be:

People: of course, of course, of course.

Leader: This is the good news of the gospel.

DoxologyPrayer of Dedication (Unison):

God of holy surprises, receive these gifts we bring. Take what seems small in our hands and let it become nourishment, beauty, and hope for others. Use these offerings to widen joy, to strengthen love, and to remind us that you are always at work in ways we could never fully predict. We place them in your care, grateful and expectant. Amen.
